

SPONSORS AND DELEGATES TO REUNION

MISS ANNIE GRACE BUFORD, of Roanoke, Va., is a daughter of Captain Thomas P. Buford, who served in the ranks of Company G, Eleventh Mississippi Regiment, Army of Northern Virginia, and a granddaughter of the late Captain R. B. Moorman, of Company D, Fourteenth Virginia Cavalry.

MISS RUBY VIRGINIA SMITH, of Irvington, Va., is a daughter of the Confederate Choir, composed of twenty-five young women of that place, and is a Virginia Choir delegate to the Memphis Reunion. Miss Smith is well known throughout the State, being one of the most beautiful young women of the Northern Neck of Virginia.

MISS GRACE GREGORY PINCHARD is prominent in the social life of Lancaster county and is very popular among her hosts of friends. Her home is near Rehoboth Church, Va.

MISS LILA LEITCH JAMISON, of Roanoke, well known throughout Virginia for her charming personality and grace.

SOCIETY

THE two leading events which will engage the attention of society here and in upper Virginia during the next fortnight will be the horse shows to be held at Leesburg, June 9 and 10, and at Upperville, June 15 and 16.

These open air shows hold a prominent place in the social life of Virginia during the summer season, and the beautiful country homes in Northern Virginia will open their hospitable doors to receive their guests.

Mrs. Swanson leaves on Tuesday afternoon for Morven Park, where she will visit Mr. and Mrs. Westmoreland Davis and be entertained at a number of social affairs, which have been planned by society in and around Leesburg.

James L. Graves will go up Tuesday, and it is probable that a number of Richmonders will attend.

At Woman's Club.

Major M. E. Barter, who is one of the commanding officers of the Salvation Army, a graduate of Vassar and a most interesting and accomplished speaker, will tell the members of the Woman's Club something of her work and its needs in the larger cities on Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Announcement.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Baylis announce the engagement of their daughter, Hattie Mercer, to Lieutenant William Hilton Redding, United States Army. The marriage will take place in the early autumn.

Social Favorite in London.

Americans, especially Virginians, are proud of the social success of Mrs. Spotswood, who has taken high rank among American beauties in London during the last two years. She is the wife of a Virginian, Dandridge Hobson, of Petersburg, and is a very accomplished and lovely woman.

She has been in London since the beginning of the season, and recently was a guest at Lady Paget's house, Coombe Warren, Kingston-on-Thames, to meet the King.

There Mrs. Spotswood gave His Majesty a luck trinket in the shape of a little green frog, and the King, in thanking her, said: "If I win the Derby, I'll send you a big frog in diamonds."

Minor won, and the King, true to his royal word, sent Mrs. Spotswood a very handsome diamond ornament in the shape of a frog.

Linez Show.

Miss Louise Pitts, of 1101 West Franklin Street, tendered to Miss Betty Hurt Larus, of Chestnut Hill, a linen shower on Wednesday evening last. Miss Larus is to be married to Charles White Morrisette on Wednesday evening next. A most enjoyable evening was spent, plenty of ice being served. Those invited were: Misses Betty Hurt Larus, Bessie Marshall, Pattie Christian, Mary Dame, Virginia Sale, Annie Blankenship, Eloise Robinson, Louise Adkins, Miss Blank and others.

Mr. Wickersham to Wed.

Members of Richmond society who were so pleasantly impressed by Attorney-General and Mrs. Wickersham when they were entertained here recently by Henry W. Anderson will be interested in the engagement of their son, Cornelius Wendell Wickersham, to Rosalie Nelson Hinckley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Parker Hinckley, of Lawrence, L. I.

The ceremony will be performed at noon on Saturday, June 19, in St. John's Church at Far Rockaway, L. I., and will be followed by a wedding breakfast at Sunridge.

Commemorative Exercises.

The commemorative exercises of Pegasus Seminary will be held at Park Place, M. E. Church, June 16, at 8:15 P. M. An interesting musical and literary program by the pupils has been arranged.

Dr. Boatwright, of Richmond College, will deliver the medals and diplomas. Dr. Metcalf will make the address.

The following diplomas will be awarded:

For completing the work of Sixth Grammar Grade—Misses Mary Virginia Elmore, Mary Louise Seigle and David Ralph Stern.

Graduates in bookkeeping are: Misses Mary Louise Seigle, Eva May Calhoun and Lillie Hulcher.

A bachelor of science is named as René Mildred Fisher.

Wed. Wednesday.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Preston Elliott, daughter of the late Warren Elliott and Mrs. Elliott, to Dr. Gordon Wilson was celebrated yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock at St. Paul's Church, in Baltimore.

The bride was given away by her brother, George Elliott, of Wilmington, N. C., and George Colston was Dr. Wilson's best man. The bridesmaids were Miss Sadie Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pembroke Jones, of New York; Miss Constance Hoffman, Miss Marie Conrad, of Baltimore, and Miss Margaret Elliott, the bride's sister.

Charles Elliott, the brother of the bride; George Blome, of New York; Wiley Grady, of Norfolk; Dr. David Leman, of Connecticut; Dr. Lewis Lusk, of Washington, and Dr. Harry Marshall, of Baltimore, were the ushers.

Oakwood Memorial.

The ladies of Oakwood Memorial Association will meet in St. John's Church Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock to elect officers for the ensuing year.

In and out of town.

Miss Marie Burwell, of Jacksonville, Fla., stopped over in Richmond last week with Mrs. Philip Powers, in her apartment at the Chesterfield.

Mrs. Andrew Gray and her mother, places on the Continent and throughout insular Europe.

Miss Helen Stevens and Miss Mary Moulton went to Boscobel on Friday afternoon, returning yesterday.

Mrs. Seiden Walke and little daughter are visiting Mr. Walke's sister, Mrs. H. M. Melhany, at the University of Virginia.

Miss Janie H. Lucas, who has been stopping with her friends, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Riddle, 1705 Hanover Street, has returned to her home at Albano, Orange county, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Cameron

Miss John Springer, of Wilmington, N. C., left on Friday for Atlantic City.

Miss Lou Nalle left on Thursday for New York to sail with a party of Virginia and North Carolina friends to spend the summer abroad. They left New York on the Princess Irene, of the North German Lloyd Line, and have planned to visit many interesting places on the Continent and throughout insular Europe.

WE claim for the Steadfast Shoe that it is far better—better leathers, material, fit and finish than the usual run of five and six dollar shoes.

We know that they are hand-lasted—others are not, and we know that has the same characteristic points of superiority—exclusive cut and individual style—you expect to find in made-to-order footwear costing twice as much; and you don't find it in ordinary five and six dollar shoes.

THE Steadfast SHOE

HAND LASTED BENCH MADE

Our new Spring stock includes the noblest line of low shoes ever shown in this city—shoes that look the part and will keep their "dressy" appearance longer than any we know of. We can prove this.
